The Lessons

Old Testament

(Sit)

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

Reader A reading from Job.

<sup>2</sup> "Today also my complaint is bitter;
my hand is heavy on account of my groaning.

<sup>3</sup> Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his seat!

<sup>4</sup> I would lay my case before him
and fill my mouth with arguments.

<sup>5</sup> I would know what he would answer me
and understand what he would say to me.

<sup>6</sup> Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; he would pay attention to me.

<sup>7</sup> There an upright man could argue with him,
and I would be acquitted forever by my judge.

<sup>8</sup> "Behold, I go forward, but he is not there,
and backward, but I do not perceive him;

<sup>9</sup> on the left hand when he is working, I do not behold him;
he turns to the right hand, but I do not see him.

<sup>16</sup> God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;

<sup>17</sup> yet I am not silenced because of the darkness,
nor because thick darkness covers my face.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

(Silence for meditation on the scripture.)

Psalm 90:12-17

(Stand)

<sup>12</sup> So teach us to number our days
that we may get a heart of wisdom.

<sup>13</sup> Return, O Lord! How long?
Have pity on your servants!

<sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

<sup>15</sup> Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us,
and for as many years as we have seen evil.

<sup>16</sup> Let your work be shown to your servants,
and your glorious power to their children.

<sup>17</sup> Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us,
and establish the work of our hands upon us;
yes, establish the work of our hands!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever.

(Silence for meditation on the scripture.)

New Testament

Hebrews 3:1-6, 12-19

Reader A Reading from Hebrews.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, <sup>2</sup> who was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in all God's house. <sup>3</sup> For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as much more glory as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself. <sup>4</sup> (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.) <sup>5</sup> Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, <sup>6</sup> but Christ is

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through him you have poured out your Holy Spirit, filling us with light and life. And now we give you thanks because your Holy Spirit inspired the scriptures and leads us into all truth: he gives us power to proclaim your gospel to all nations and to serve you as a royal priesthood.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus Celebrant and People

The Prayer of Consecration (Kneel)

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again. Alleluia!

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy sacrament, and be made one body with him, so that he may dwell in us and we in him.

And bring us with all your saints into the fullness of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to sing:

The Lord's Prayer

The Fraction

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Fraction Anthem

All Baptized Christians are invited to communion. Please extend both hands to receive the bread and assist the server by guiding the chalice to your lips. If you do not desire the cup, leave the bread in your hand. The server will dip it in the wine and return it to you. For those not receiving communion, you are welcome to come for a blessing by crossing your arms over your heart as you come before the priest. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request.

PRAYER MINISTRY: After receiving communion, Prayer Teams are available through the doors to the right of the altar.

Thanksgiving Support for "We Are Rockwall"

One of the annual activities for "We Are Rockwall" is to provide a pre-Thanksgiving meal to those in need. Last year was our first opportunity to participate as a church, and we had a wonderful turnout and a fabulous time. This year, the event will be held on Saturday, November 17, so mark your calendars. We will be supporting their efforts again this year by providing Meals on Wheels "packers" and drink servers, and we hope to have a TAC booth with handouts and goodies. Please sign up with Ginny Ryan to volunteer for shifts packing meals, serving drinks to the tables of guests, or working our booth. Also, we are in need of donations to cover the purchase of booth supplies and goodies. These can be given with your regular contribution, marked as Other – "WAR".
